TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

JULY 19th, 1796.

(CIRCULAR.)

TO THE COLLECTORS OF THE CUSTOMS.

SIR,

THE incloſed act for the relief and protection of American ſeamen, paſſed at the laſt ſeſſion of Congreſs, having neither aſcertained what proof of citizenſhip ſhall be in any caſe deemed ſufficient, nor how ſuch proof ſhall be authenticated to authoriſe a delivery of the certificate of citizenſhip, in that act preſcribed; the Preſident of the United States has thought it expedient, to the end, that there may be an eaſy, certain and uniform mode of executing the law in theſe particulars, to give ſome general inſtructions upon the ſubject, which I am by him directed to communicate to all the Collectors, for their rule and government. They are as follows: Perſons of the following deſcription are to be regiſtered and furniſhed with certificates of citizenſhip;

1ſt. Free white perſons born within the limits of the United States, or any of them, and free white perſons born in any foreign country, but actually ſettled within the limits of the United States on the third day of September, in the year one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty three.

2d. Perſons naturalized purſuant to the laws of any of the United States, prior to the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety five.

3d. Perſons naturalized purſuant to the law of the United States, paſſed on the twenty-ſixth day of March, in the year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety, while it was in force.

4th. Perſons naturalized purſuant to the laws of the United States, paſſed on the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five.

5th. Children of Citizens of the United States, or any one of them born at any place out of the limits of the United States.

6th. Children of naturalized citizens, dwelling in the United States, and under twenty-one years of age at the time of ſuch naturalization.

Proofs of citizenſhip in the ſeveral caſes beforementioned, to be produced to the collectors reſpectively, prior to their iſſuing certificates of citizenſhip, are to be of the kind, and to be authenticated as follows:

1ſt. Every perſon claiming citizenſhip, as a native of the United States, is to produce an extract from the regiſter of births or baptiſms, where ſuch is kept, in the civil or religious ſociety, to which the applicant belongs, certified by the proper officer of ſuch ſociety, in the uſual manner, and ſupported by the affidavit of at leaſt one credible witneſs, teſtifying that the applicant was born within the limits of the United States, and deſcribing the county and ſtate in which he was born.

2d. Every perſon claiming citizenſhip, by virtue of an actual ſettlement within the United States, on the third day of September, in the year one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-three, ſhall produce the affidavit of at leaſt one credible witneſs, teſtifying that the applicant was actually ſettled within the United States, on the third day of September, in the year one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty three, and deſcribing the town or county, and ſtate in which he was then ſettled.

3d. In caſes where citizenſhip is claimed by virtue of any naturalization, purſuant to the laws of any one of the United States, prior to the twenty-ninth day of January, in the year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety five, or purſuant to the laws of the United States, the ſame ſhall be proved by a copy of the law or record, (as the caſe may be) certified under the hand of the proper Officer; and in caſe of a record of a court, it is to be authenticated alſo under the ſeal of the Court, if any ſeal is uſed.

4th. In caſes were citizenſhip is claimed by perſons as being children of citizens of the United States, or any of them, born out of the limits of the United States, the citizenſhip of the parents under whom the applicants claim, ſhall be proved as before preſcribed, in like manner as if the citizenſhip was claimed by the parents themſelves; and further, it muſt be proved by the affidavit of at leaſt one credible witneſs, that they are reputed and believed to be the children of the perſons under whom they derive their citizenſhip.

5th. In caſes were citizenſhip is claimed by perſons in virtue of the naturalization of their parents, ſuch naturalization ſhall be proved in the manner before directed, and in addition thereto, the applicants are to produce reſpectively the affidavits of one credible witneſs in each caſe, teſtifying that they are reputed children of naturalized citizens of the United States, or of ſome one of them, and did reſide within the United States, and were under twenty one years of age at the time their parents reſpectively were naturalized.

The affidavits before mentioned, may be taken before, and certified by any judge, magiſtrate, or other officer of the United States, duly authoriſed by law to adminiſter an oath or affirmation.

FREDERICKSBURG, July 27.

The following truly melancholy and diſtreſſing circumſtance, was obligingly communicated to us by a friendly correſpondent: About three years ſince, William Clift, a reſident of King-George county, was unfortunately bit by a mad-dog, as alſo ſeveral dogs, cattle, hogs, &c. which in a ſhort time died, the unfortunate man never until within a few days paſt, when he was ſeized with the firſt ſymptoms, which increaſed and affected him in a moſt diſtreſſing manner. A ſight perhaps more horrid could not preſent itſelf to the human imagination, than to ſee him, with ſavage rapacity, unfeelingly diſſever his own fleſh like a cannibal, and howl like the poor brute that ſtung him, until repeated convulſions terminated his exiſtence. At different times in the interval ſince he was bit, until his laſt attack, he has ſhewn ſome ſigns of melancholy.

The above is a lamentable proof how long this horrid infection of canine madneſs will lay dormant in the human conſtitution, and at laſt break out and deſtroy the unhappy victim.

Tranſlated from the COURIER FRANÇAIS of this Morning.

By the brig Six Brothers in 16 days from Port de Paix, we have received the following intelligence:—

Bompárde is evacuated by the Engliſh, and a cordon is ſince formed from that poſt to Port de Paix. The French frigate the Meduſa has taken during a ſhort cruiſe 8 prizes, among which is a tranſport with 450 troops bound from the Môle to Port au-Prince with a full etat-major, and another veſſel with 60 horſes.

The frigate Inſurgente has returned and made ſeveral prizes in her voyage from New-York to the Cape.

Two ſhips and a frigate have ſailed, (their deſtination unknown) having on board 150 of the troops which arrived from France.

Pageot, appointed General of Diviſion is gone with Rochambeau General in Chief of the Spaniſh part of Hiſpaniola to take the command at Santo Domingo.

Future progreſs of the French in Germany, from the AURORA.

As Gen. Kleber advances towards the river Mein, the Republican troops ſtationed on the left bank of the Rhine, will croſs the latter river, and follow the victorious advanced guard into the heart of the German Empire. The 3000 men quartered between Cologne and Coblentz had already croſſed the Rhine at Bonne and Neuwied; the 30,000 Republicans poſted between Coblentz and Bingen, will have croſſed the Rhine at Caub between Bingen and Rhinefels; the greateſt part of the centre of the Republican army compoſed of 90,000 men and led on by Jourdan, and Marceau will follow the ſame road; the intrepid Moreau, at the head of 80,000 men, will force the paſſage of the Rhine above Manheim, near Kelſh; and by this manœuvre he will bring the Auſtrians between two fires. The Republican army aſſembled in the vicinity of Baſle, will attempt to invade Suabia by croſſing the Rhine under the cannon of the fortreſs of Huninguen; and the important reſult of all theſe operations will be peace with the German Empire and the Emperor, on the terms dictated by the French Republic.

MR. FENNO,

IN this lying period, it may be important to the cauſe of truth and the intereſts of our country, to refreſh the memories of the indefatigable enemeis of both, with ſome facts which are recorded in the annals of Congreſs.

In this point of view, I conſider the following, which appeared in a late Kentucky paper, "If ſome of your correſpondents would take the trouble to examine the public records during the early ſtages of the Revolution, they would be able to furniſh a ſeries of tranſactions that would ſerve to unmaſk the characters of thoſe "excluſive patriots", who are inceſſantly maligning the real patriots of our country.

C,

From the Kentucky Gazette.

27th September, 1779, Mr. Jay was appointed as miniſter to the court of Spain.

4th and 17th October, 1780, Mr. Jay was inſtructed by Congreſs, to inſiſt on the navigation of the Miſſiſippi, and preſent boundary.

15th April, 1781, on the motion of the delegates of Virginia, Mr. Jay was inſtructed by Congreſs to offer to Spain the excluſive navigation of the Miſſiſippi, without condition. New Jerſey and Maryland not then repreſented. New-York divided. Maſſachuſetts, Connecticut, and North Carolina oppoſed. The other ſtates in favour.

In June, 1781, Franklin, Jefferſon, Jay, and Laurens, joined with Adams to treat of peace; and Adams's powers to treat of commerce, repealed.

Mr. Jay, of his own caution, on making the offer under theſe inſtructions, annexed a condition, that Spain, to avail herſelf of it, ſhould, before peace with Great Britain, make a treaty with the United States, ſimilar to our treaty with France.

30th April, 1782, Congreſs being adviſed of the conditional offer made by Mr. Jay, approve it, and direct him to requeſt loans, &c.

6th Auguſt, 1782, Congreſs annul the former inſtructions to Mr. Jay, and direct him to treat with Spain as provided by the ſeparate article with France.

Mr. John Adams ſole commiſſioner from the United States to Great Britain for peace and commerce, 1779.

Commiſſioners for peace inſtructed to exclude the Fiſheries and Miſſiſippi from the ultimatum.

8th June, 1781, Virginia propoſed the Ohio as the N. W. boundary of the United States. New England ſtates againſt it, and queſtion loſt.

Among the legacies bequeathed to the Magdalen last year, is one of 100l. left by a woman who was restored to her friends by that institution almost 20 years since, and who persevered in a virtuous course of life.

A few days since a farmer's son at Baldock in Hertfordshire, fell down a haystack, and pitched upon a fork, which penetrated to his heart, of which he almost instantly expired. He was to have been married the next day to a young woman, who has been deprived of her senses ever since the accident.

BY THIS DAY's MAILS.

NEW-YORK, August 4.

Tuesday arrived the brig Baron de Carondelet, Capt. James M'Call, in 80 days from Leghorn, and 36 days from Gibraltar.

Capt. M'Call sailed from Leghorn, on the 13th May last, and was boarded, 3 leagues to the westward of the road, by two French privateers, one called Rondenelle, Marcells, master, the other Temeraire, Pigo, master; the first plundered the vessel, but more particularly a passenger on board, they took all his trunks, bed and bed clothes, and cash to a considerable amount, and left him only the shirt and what clothes he had on at the time. This was done within long gun shot of two English frigates, one 40 gun ship, and two sloops of war. An English brig called the Mediterranean, that sailed in company with Capt. M'Call, took protection under the guns of Leghorn, and so escaped. They sent a prize master from each privateer, with ten men on board Capt M'Call, and at the same time they manned a Swedish brig from Boston, bound to Leghorn, called the Gustavus; they carried both vessels into the Gulf of Espesein, where Captain M'Call were detained until he sent an express to the American Consul at Leghorn. He was cleared on the 18th, as also the Swedish brig. The same evening Capt. M'Call sailed, and on the 20th was boarded by another French privateer's boat, with 20 men; they broke down the brig's bulkheads to get into the hold, broke open several packages of the cargo, on pretence to look for papers, and did considerable damage; towards night they left the brig, and told the captain he might sail and steer his course.

May 21, a frigate which appeared to be English, fired 4 guns to bring Captain M'Call to; he then stood for her, but in a short time she fired another gun for him to keep his course which he did.

Capt. M'Call, left at Leghorn, the Commerce, Isaac Isaacs, master; the Charles of Philadelphia, William Ferguson, master; the Commerce was bound to Baltimore, and the Charles to Hamburgh. The Rachel, Sheffield of New-York, was at Leghorn; she was to sail for London, loaded with wheat.

Capt. M'Call, has brought dispatches from the American Consul to the secretary of state, relating to the Algerine Treaty.

June 5th, Capt. M'Call, was boarded by a Galliot belonging to the French Republic, called the Liberty, from Algiers bound to Carthagena, day before she had taken two English vessels, one of 700 tons, the other 200, loaded with wheat, bound to London; the officer that came on board, told Capt. M'Call, the American prisoners were in a miserable situation, and expected to be treated worse, if their ransom and the Treaty money, was not paid by November.

The Algerines had taken 17 sail of Danish merchantmen, and all in Algiers when the captain of the Liberty sailed.

July 21, was boarded by the Scipio, in lat. 31, 20, west from the meridian of London, 62, 36. The lieutenant that boarded captain M'Call, said they had taken a Bermudian privateer, that mounted 18 double fortified fixes.

The following petition and certificate were handed for publication by capt. David Grigg, of the schooner Esther and Eliza, of this port, arrived from Port-au-Prince.

To his honor R. K. Wilford, Esq. Commander of of his majesty's forces at Port-au Prince.

THE PETITION OF WILLIAM JESSUP,

Master of the American ship Mercury, of New-York, humbly sets forth,

THAT your petitioner being on his passage from St. Marc's to this port, was laying to, about one o'clock on the morning of the 1st inst. in company with a number of transports and his majesty's frigate Success, commanded by capt. Pigot, when the Success wore ship and ran foul of the Mercury. The captain of the frigate ordered his people to cut away every thing they could lay their hands on. The jib-boom, spritsail yard, fore stay, topmast stays, jib stays, stopper, shank-painters, and two strands of his small bower cable were cut—he further ordered his men to cut away and bring on board the frigate, the Mercury's jib and fore-topmast stayfail, which was done; capt. Pigot telling his men at the same time, they would do to make trowsers. Your petitioner begged capt. Pigot for God's sake not to cut any more than he could not avoid, or words to that effect. Capt. Pigot forthwith commanded his people to bring the d——d rascal that spoke, on board the frigate. Your petitioner was then seized and ordered on board the frigate, where he remained for a few minutes, 'till the vessels were cleared. Capt. Pigot thereupon desired the Boatswain's mates to give the d——d rascal, meaning your petitioner, a good flogging. They took hold of your petitioner and enquired who he was: it was told he was the master of the Mercury. Well, said captain Pigot, flog him well, and let him flog his officers. These orders were instantly obeyed, and in so severe and cruel a manner that your petitioner was nearly bereft of his senses. During the time your petitioner was thus brutally beaten and ill-treated, he, your petitioner, made use of no offensive language whatever, or no kind of resistance, but only begged they would have compassion on him.—No attention was paid to his cries, but, on the contrary, they proceeded to beat him with the same violence, until he, capt. Pigot, was supposed to be satisfied. Your petitioner was now again ordered in the frigate's boat, to be put on board his ship, without ever having once exchanged a word with capt. Pigot. Your petitioner arrived here the same day, when he exhibited the marks and bruises of his shocking treatment to a number of the most respectable inhabitants and others in the town of Port-au Prince, who all impartially pronounced it an outrage of the most brutal and unmanly kind, as the certificate annexed to this paper abundantly testifies.

Your petitioner, therefore, humbly prays your honor to be pleased to interfere on his behalf, by such representation as your honor may think meet to lay before the proper authority in this country, that should take cognizance of the above affair in such manner that he, your petitioner, may obtain that justice and satisfaction which the nature of an offence so glaring and unprecedented loudly calls for, and your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c. &c.

Port-au Prince, 4th July, 1796.

Signed by WILLIAM JESSUP.

WE whose names are hereunto subscribed, do certify and attest, that having seen and viewed the marks and lashes inflicted on the body and person of captain Jessup, master of the ship Mercury, of New-York, by order of capt. Pigot, commander of his majesty's frigate Success, on the morning of the 1st July, do declare, that the facts stated in his petition hereto annexed, as far as the same regard his person, are strictly conformable to truth, and we do moreover give it as our opinion, that the danger to be apprehended from such wanton and barbarous treatment, is of the most imminent and alarming nature to the person and life of capt. Jessup, revolting to humanity, degrading and dishonorable in the highest degree to the commander of a ship of his Britannic majesty.

I certify as above.

WE the subscribers, passengers on board the ship Mercury, William Jesup, declare, that when the Success frigate ran foul of the Mercury on the night of the 1st inst. on our passage from St. Marc's to this port. We did not hear Capt. Jesup utter or say any thing of an irritation or offensive nature, but behaved in the most passive and forbearing stile in his answers when hailed by the Success. That at the time he was taken from or left the Mercury to go on board the Success, he appeared to be in perfect health, but on his return therefrom he was in a very suffering condition, owing to and by reason of, as we verily believe, the sore beatings and bruises, whereof his body and arms, which he exhibited to us, bore the most convincing proof, and while to our knowledge he received while on board the above frigate Success.

FROM LATE PARIS PAPERS.

TRANSLATED FOR THE DAILY ADVERTISER.

ACCOUNT OF BABŒUF.

SINCE Babœuf has become a person of some consequence, every one seems desirous of knowing who he is, what he has done, of what importance he is, and what he aimed at, by the Conspiracy. The following letter extracted from the "Historian," will answer a part of these questions.

"Francis Noel Babœuf was born in the commune of St. Quentin; he is about 36 years old; his father, a poor man employed in the excise upon salt, had him taught to write, and he writes extremely well.

"In 1777, he left his father's house, and sought for employment with several persons in quality of a scrivener, or copyist; but failed in procuring any, on account of his youth, and the want of recommendations. In the mean time, he was reduced to the most extreme distress; he was absolutely naked: Some person through pity offered him the place of a servant in some nobleman's family, who resided near Roye—he accepted it—he served in that situation about 3 years. The former Lord of the estate was then about renewing the registry of his lands. Babœuf wrote well, and he employed him in the business; he did not want for penetration, he applied himself diligently, and became a pretty good feudist. During these transactions he got a chamber-maid with child and married her. His new feudal acquirements having made him insolent, he was turned away. Having left his new situation, he brought a suit against his master, and lost his cause. Instructed in the feudal business, he determined to enter into business on his own account.—He fixed at Roye and announced himself commissioner of rent rolls.

A lady who resided at Paris, entrusted him with the renewal of the rent-roll of a small fief which she possessed near Roye. He performed it, received the arrearages, rendered no account, was sued by the lady and lost his cause. The former prior of St. Aurin, near Roye, entrusted him with the renewal of the registry of his priory—he performed it, engaged in a law-suit with the prior, and lost his cause.

The former Marquis of Loyecourt being about to renew the registry of his lands, gave him the direction of it.—He began the work, but the insolent letters which he wrote to the tenants having caused complaints against him, the Marquis withdrew his confidence from him—this displeased Babœuf, he commenced a prosecution and lost his cause.

From that time, till the year 1789, he lived by drawing writings for the country people. In the beginning of the revolution he began by hawking about and procuring signatures to a seditious paper—he was arrested and conducted to the prison at Paris.—An amnesty published by the first constituent assembly restored to him his liberty—He then commenced a journal which he quickly abandoned for the want of subscribers.

At the time of the Primary assemblies of 1792, held under the sword of the Septemberizers, he was nominated Elector of the department of Somme. The electoral assembly afterwards appointed him administrator of the district of Mount Didier. At the end of two months he committed a serious offence in the sale of some national property. He was prosecuted—he fled—and was condemned to twelve years imprisonment in irons. He then finally quit the department of Somme, and went and buried himself in the crowd of Paris; his writings there caused him to be arrested, and he was shut up in the citadel of Arras: but the amnesty of Brumaire last again restored him to liberty." Such, Citizen, is the man who, when he was a servant, did not surely doubt, but that he should, one day, have played the part of a great conspirator, and that he should have offered to the Directory to treat with them, as "from one authority to another." Genius of liberty forbid that he should again be in a situation to prove the advantages of a third amnesty.

Courier L'Egalite.

From Capt. Lovett, of the schooner Chatham, arrived last evening in 17 days from Leogane, we obtain the following LIST OF VESSELS captured and carried into that port by the French. Captain Lovett informs us that the French cruisers capture all American vessels without discrimination.

List of Vessels in Leogane, July 16, 1796.

Schooner Lucretia, Betts, of New-York, to sail in five or six days.

Schooner Regulator, Stanwood, of do.

Sloop Nancy, Smayle, of Philadelphia, brought in by a French barge; not libelled.

Brig Triton, Flinn, of ditto. Vessel and cargo libelled.

Brig Experience, Hoosen, of do. Vessel and cargo libelled.

Brig Eliza, Arnold, Wilmington. Vessel and cargo libelled.

Sloop Britannia, Young, North Yarmouth—— Vessel and cargo libelled.

Schooner Ann, Gibbs, Boston, with a cargo of horses, bound to Port au-Prince—Vessel and cargo libelled, his horses for the English.

Schooner Hannah, Phillips, of Baltimore, to sail in four or five weeks.

The above vessels were taken and libelled for no other reason than that of being bound to Port au-Prince, as their cargoes consisted of provisions, dry goods and lumber.

Capt. Lovett informs that the schooner Citizen, of Baltimore, was robbed off Cape-May, by a French privateer, of 4,564 dollars.

In the schooner Chatham, Capt. Lovett, from Leogane, came passenger Capt. John Bullis, of the sloop Ann of New London, who informs, that she was taken by the English sloop of war, the Bull Dog, and carried into Tortola, and condemned on the 1st of April. Cargo consisting chiefly of coffee, cotton and sugar. Supposes had he been taken by any other English vessel would not have been used in the same manner; confirms the news of the French capturing all American vessels.

ALBANY, July 29.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Oswego, to his friend in this city, dated July 14.

"This day has been a great day to us. The British garrison marched out, and gave possession of the post of Oswego, to the American troops, who marched in with two field-pieces, planted the standard of the United States on the ramparts of the fort, and fired a salute of 15 cannon. Our troops were then drawn up in the centre of the fort. Mr. M'Clallen had the management of the field pieces. —We partook of a refreshment at the room of the late British commandant, which ours now occupies. —The British officers behaved with great politeness on the occasion.—Capt. Clark, the commanding officer, has left us a fine garden.—Mr. Glen will sail for Niagara, in company with the late garrison, having chartered a vessel for that purpose."

Nielson, Hoffman, and Plantain, the Frenchman, broke the jail of this city, on Monday night, and escaped. The two former were under sentence of imprisonment at hard labor for life. The sheriffs offers a reward of 60 dollars for their apprehension, or 20 dollars for either.

Plaintain has broken the jail of this city and escaped, five several times within twelve months.

BOSTON, August 1.

LATEST FROM LONDON.

Yesterday arrived ship Concord, Capt. Colley, 56 days from the Downs.

Capt. Colley left London the 28th of May, and the Downs the 2d of June. While he lay there, he experienced a severe gale of wind, which did considerable damage to the shipping there; among others, the ship Fair American, belonging to N. York, with her whole cargo on board, and ready for sea, was driven on shore and lost. She had about 40 passengers on board, 18 only of which were saved, with part of the crew: the captain was on shore. Several English vessels were also driven on shore. A brig from Boston, Capt. Cole, bound for Cowes, put into the Downs the day after the gale, which happened the 30th of May. We have not yet received any papers, and by the Captain we learn nothing new.

Married, on Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Dr. Thacher, James Scott, Esq. to Mrs. Hancock, widow of his late Excellency John Hancock, Esq.

Capt. Harwood, arrived at New-York, in 15 days from the Mole, informs, that the French had taken Fort Plessi, that the British had evacuated Bombard, and that a force of 3000 men had left the Mole for Port-au Prince, an attack on which they supposed was meditated by the French.

A letter from Port-au-Prince, of July 1, says, "we are informed by way of St. Thomas's that Gen. Marquis de Bouille has taken possession of the island of St. Eustatia, with a regiment of Emigrants, in the name of the king of Great Britain.

FROM GRENADA, JULY 5.

Capt. Stevens informs, that the English are in full possession of Grenada, and that 47 of the French inhabitants who had sworn allegiance to his Britannic Majesty, at the time of its former capitulation, were taken up, tried and condemned, 14 of which were executed on the 2d inst. among which was one second in command, who met his fate with the greatest fortitude. The remaining 33 were to be executed the Saturday following (9th inst.)

Mr. FRANCIS,

(Of the New Theatre)

TAKES this opportunity of returning thanks to his scholars and to the public. Mr. Francis intends, on his return from Maryland, to open a public academy for dancing, upon a plan entirely new. He flatters himself that his attention to his pupils hitherto renders any promises of conducting his future schemes on the most liberal and strictest terms, of propriety, totally unnecessary.

N. B. Private tuition as usual.

50,000 Tickets, at Eight Dollars,		400,000

N. B. To favour those who may take a quantity of Tickets, the prize of 40,000 dollars will be the LAST drawn ticket, and the 30,000 the LAST but ONE:

And approved notes, securing payment in either money or prizes, in ten days after drawing, will be received for any number not less than 30 tickets.

This Lottery will afford an elegant specimen of the private buildings to be erected in the City of Washington.—Two beautiful designs are already selected for the entire fronts on two of the public squares; from these drawings it is proposed to erect two centre and four corner buildings, as soon as possible after this lottery is sold, and to convey them, when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A nett deduction of five per cent. will be made to defray the necessary expenses of printing, &c. and the surplus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be erected within the city of Washington.

The Drawing will commence as soon as the tickets are sold off.—The money prizes will be payable in thirty days after it is finished; and any prizes for which fortunate numbers are not produced within twelve months after the drawing is closed, are to be considered as given towards the fund for the University; it being determined to settle the whole business in a year from the ending of the drawing, and to take up the bonds given as security.

The real securities given for the payment of the Prizes, are held by the President and two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the lottery.

The twenty four gentlemen who by appointment of the late Commissioners assisted in the management of the Hotel Lottery are requested to undertake this arduous task a second time on behalf of the public; a sufficient number of these having kindly accepted, it is hoped that the friends to a National University and the other federal objects may continue to favor the design.

By accounts received from the different parts of the Continent as well as from Europe, where the tickets have been sent for sale, the public are assured that the drawing will speedily commence, and that the care and caution unavoidably necessary to insure a safe disposal of the tickets, has rendered the late suspension indispensable.

SAMUEL BLODGET.

§. Tickets may be had at the Bank of Columbia; of James West & Co. Baltimore; of Peter Gilman, Boston; of John Hopkins, Richmond; and of Richard Wells, Cooper's Ferry.
